
State Advocacy Alert #18

Florida Cultural Alliance

2008 Election Update #3

Where does your candidate stand on arts & cultural issues?

Click here to review Florida and Presidential candidates responses to arts, arts education, and cultural surveys and issues.

Click here to review who is running and already elected in your county.

Click here to review which candidates received Americans for the Arts Action Fund and Florida Arts CCE campaign contributions?

Candidates Responses Will Be Updated
Daily at www.FLCA.net through November 3, 2008 .
Check daily to to see if your candidates responded to the surveys.

Have you contacted your candidates?

It's not too late.

It's not too late to engage your candidates and encourage them to complete the appropriate state or federal arts and cultural candidate survey. Here is the link to candidates' addresses and contact information. Let them know that arts, arts education, culture, humanities, and historical resources matter to you and to a healthy economic and qualitative life for our state.

Thank your candidate if he or she completed the appropriate arts/culture survey. If they did not complete the survey, direct them to www.FLCA.net and click on candidates surveys under the elections tab. The survey is easy, informative, and quick to complete.

You can quickly check who completed the surveys for your county by clicking here, and cursor down to your county when the document opens or review their responses at this link.

Please VOTE.

Your voice, your vote matter. Please take the time to learn where your candidates stand on key issues that matter to you. VOTE before or on November 4. Here is the link to your county's election information. Thank you for speaking up for arts & culture!

Margot H. Knight
President & CEO

Minda Logan
Director of Grants & Government Affairs